Teacher Mentor Log

Mentor: Mrs. Mosko

Mentee: Mrs. Dawood

Date: 1.26.14

Time: 12:40 to 1:00

Things going well:

Collaboration w/ Mr McKay is going well. Communication is helping keep classes on the same page.

Topics Discussed:

Trying to keep classes on the same page. Students who were disruptive have been switched to other classes or to different hours. This seems to be helping with their behavior.

Action Items:

TBD

Questions:

Date: 1.26.14

Time: 3:15 to 3:30

Things going well:

The "Leyendas" book working well for advanced class.
Mr. Martinez is planning on having students write their own legends.

Topics Discussed:

Students writing their own legends.
Student teaching observation

Action Items:

Looking into purchasing new textbooks (possibly the "Ven conmigo" series which we both find user friendly and effective).

Mentor: Mrs. Mosko

Mentee: Mr. Martinez

Date: 12.16.14

Time: 10:20 to 11:20

Things going well:

Calling parents to address discipline issues. Deandre Johnson has become a major source of discipline issues.

Topics Discussed:

"Las Posadas" lessons for the week. Mr. Martinez copied the Activity Packet and I found the video we'll be sharing with our classes this week.

Action Items:

Discuss new activities to include in our lessons for Spanish 300.

Questions:

Date: 12.15.14

Time: 10:20 to 11:30

Things going well:

Keeping track of Special Education students and their needs.

Topics Discussed:

Discipline issues w/ Deandre Johnson and company. Attempts to redirect have proven ineffective.

Action Items:

Request assistance from administration in regards to discipline issues with said student.

Questions:

If a student continues to disrupt and parent contact has not worked, what is next?
